Virtual Meeting

This is a Virtual Meeting on Zoom

Networking/Intro…6:00 pm; Program…6:30 pm; Meeting…7:15 pm

Have you thought about starting your own business?

Learn some tips from a successful small business owner.

Join the Greater Oakland Charter Chapter of ABWA on Tuesday, May 28 for networking followed by a presentation by Shirley New, owner and founder of New Accounting.

Shirley is a successful accountant and small business owner in Middletown, Indiana. Her business, New Accounting, opened in 2018 and provides taxes, payroll, and bookkeeping services. Shirley is a member of the Raintree Chapter of ABWA in New Castle, IN and the Women of Magnitude Express Network in Ft. Wayne, IN. Shirley is currently Chair of the Cardinal Crossroads Council of ABWA. She has served as District V Vice President in ABWA and is a 2024 Top Ten Business Woman in ABWA

Shirley is passionate about her business and about ABWA. She will share some of her experiences:

- What, when and where do you start a small business adventure?
- Lessons learned and tips that could help you or others starting their own business
- Shirley's Top Ten journey
