GREATER OAKLAND CHARTER
CHAPTER

Join us on November 16th to hear George Kacan discuss successful learning environments, including:

- Exploring traits of an exceptional learning environment
- Great physical school environments where students and teacher engage in meaningful educational experience
- Understanding the human senses and how the built environment affects students and teachers
- How to take advantage of disruptive innovation

George works for Wightman, an employee-owned company focused on partnering with clients to solve problems in the communities where we live and work. George has over 30 years of experience as an architect, coupled with extensive management expertise, including his role on the company's leadership team as Education Sector Leader for Wightman and Regional Director for the southeast Michigan office. He has successfully led important capital improvement projects for large urban and rural remote public school districts in the U.S. George has a passion for building trust with clients through a commitment to service excellence, one-on-one interactions, trust, and accountability.

Our evening begins with in-person and virtual networking, followed by the program, dinner, and our monthly meeting.

There is no cost to attend this event via Zoom. In-person attendees are responsible for the cost of their dinner. Pre-registration is required on our website: www.abwa-greateroakland.org

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing info needed to join the meeting.
