Community Connections!

Julie Sullivan will share information on the Association's private social media site, Community Connections. Community Connections is a learning and communications platform with the ability to connect members of the American Business Women's Association across the United States. This is a place to collaborate with members, find information on the Association's programs, and take courses to further member's careers.

Julie is a thirteen-year member of ABWA. In 2013 she was named a 2014 Top Ten. As a leading organization for working women, the American Business Women's Association takes recognition to a national level with the prestigious Top Ten Business Women of ABWA program. The Top Ten is the highest honor awarded annually to members and recognized nationally at ABWA's National Women's Leadership Conference. In 2015, Sullivan was elected as the 2015-2016 District V Vice President. The National Board of Directors is a volunteer board that governs the national bylaws on behalf of the members of the American Business Women's Association. The National Board of Directors also serve as trustees for the Stephen Bufton Memorial Educational Fund (SBMEF). Now, Julie serves as a gold level Ambassador for ABWA. An ABWA Ambassador is an advocate and communicator of the Association's mission within the organization as well as in her personal and professional life.

This Event is offered at no cost. Registration is required at www.abwa-greateroakland.org and a Zoom link will be sent to you.
