GREATER OAKLAND CHARTER
CHAPTER

Gail Frahm is an Approved Candidate for District V Vice President. She is a wife, a mother and an executive director. She credits much of her success in business to her involvement and educational opportunities from her nearly 28 years in ABWA. She's actively managed nonprofit organizations, held local positions in ABWA and is seeking higher ground on the ABWA national board. Gail has a bachelor's degree in Communication with minors in English and Management from SVSU.

On July 21st Gail joins us on Zoom to share a bit more about herself and her experiences from teamwork to coaching, learning to leading, personal to professional development and beyond through her WHY focus message.

Our evening begins with live/virtual networking, followed by the program, dinner and a business meeting.

Send an email to donandjoann@wowway.com by 7/16/2020 if you plan to attend the program in-person at Nino's Italian House. You are responsible for paying for your dinner at the event.

Join us virtually if you cannot attend in person. Cost is $5 to attend via Zoom, which must be paid in advance using PayPal link below:
